Our Heirloom Wheat Flour is made with Turkey Red wheat, a heritage grain that predates modern breeding. Turkey Red arrived in the United States in the early 1870's, brought to Kansas by Russian Mennonite farmers.

Expertly stone-ground to retain all the nutrients and protein, this flour boasts a robust "wheaty" flavor profile and a finer texture than traditional whole wheat flour. This makes it a healthier choice for your customers that will elevate your baked goods.

Additionally, many people find heirloom grains to be more easily digestible than conventional modern wheat.

the mighty jackfruit

1

IT'S REALLY MEAT-LIKE

With a texture and taste that's naturally meaty, it's hard to believe jackfruit is really a plant. Try it and see for yourself…

2

IT'S PROPERLY GOOD FOR YOU

With high fibre levels, no cholesterol, low fat and low calories compared to meat, it's guilt free in more ways than one.

3

IT'S CRAZY VERSATILE

Jackfruit grabs onto sauces, spices and seasoning, making it an absolute flavour magnet, with a texture that brings something new to every dish.

4

IT'S ABUNDANT

Jackfruit is a hugely plentiful resource and currently a lot of it is going to waste. We want to change that. From food waste to valuable food source.
